

Responses ranked at sentence level from least distance to max distance (most relevant to least relevant) stop cutting trees it pains whenever i see anyone cutting any trees please ban cutting any trees in and around Bangalore the bengaluru i lived 10 years ago was a paradise 1- please stop drying lakes and using it for buildings its been ruined coz of human greed

Lakes plant trees open spaces

2- make plastic free bangalore that will biggest contribution towards environment, where free land is there government can lease out ngo or interested people to plant trees with financial aids so that it will create environment and creates job opportunities

open spaces

3- all plants and trees needs to be tracked plan alternative options instead of cutting trees in city the lung space is reducing heavily plant trees open spaces

4- chopping of trees should be stopped unless it's a matter of concern to life plant trees

5- every new building should leave space to plant new trees care must be taken to see that they grow well

plant trees open spaces

6- everything is fine but y is dat e1 after planning, u dig roads which r fine n make no roads for d people n coz of digging thrs so much of pollution n traffic n so much of health hazards for people staying thr n ppl commuting by dat road daily pls at least now plan properly don't just say master plan for name sake it shld ve sm serious good plan for d city

open spaces

7- water harvesting needs to be forced on people , just encouraging it wont help its ok to force if it is for common good

Water harvesting open spaces

9- please have more dustbins

open spaces

will bring in additional 10% pollution free environment 10- promote terrace gardening along with all the above open spaces pollution

11- this plan should be implemented now for next 15 years there will be a lot of population in Bengaluru please protect the nature in bengaluru and do it now

open spaces

12- vertical gardening and envirnmt structures must be mandated for tech parks the encroached lakes must be tackled sternly firstly bda land allotment must be corruption free and must not allot lands which have issues as the glass panes heats up the city

Lakes open spaces

26- bangalore is name for trees/plants, parks and beautiful lakes inside city do not cut down trees and do development with the available resources only we do not need such development where there is no good environment bbmp is cutting down all plants, covering all lakes in the name of development is not acceptable

Lakes open spaces plant trees if we think about using force now we will be left with a city with no water also the reclaimed land has to be turned back into lakes and the water catchment area of the lakes have to be taken over and turned green 41- lands of lakes should be reclaimed in full force this has to happen by force else water will be a major crisis for bangalore in another 2 years water harvesting recycled water lakes not only municipality has to plant more trees it has to be an individual's responsibility to contribute towards the society 43- in the masterplan these ideas looks good unless executed to the true core we are seeing lakes dying, temperature rising due to warming effects caused by less greenery in our surroundings, vehicles causing noise and air pollution leading to poor quality of breathable air around us

lakes plant trees open spaces